

Job Scam Awareness Tip Sheet

Job Scam Warning Signs

- Sounds too good to be true
- Vague job requirements or description
- Unprofessional e-mails or messages
- Online interviews via messaging services
- Search results don't add up
- You're asked to provide confidential information
- They ask you to pay for something
- You have a bad gut feeling

How to Protect Yourself

- Be diligent; review each job ad for legitimacy and do your research
- If you're unsure, ask for advice
- Never give out any personal or confidential information over phone or email
- Think before you act